

Manuel - 43 year old male from South America

Manuel is a parent who is also trying to prepare for his daughter's college experience in a year. He wants to send his kids abroad and invest in resourceful schools. He has somewhat enough financial income to support his kid but is looking for schools that also would accommodate his income and international differences in tuition.

English Level:

Has elementary to limited english language level. He only knows how to search for school rankings online

Support:

Financially from employment and owned property, A friend who went through the same process, Internet, Phone calls with various school administrations

Feelings through application process:

Proud, Excited, Worried, Anxious, Determined, Happy, Dreadful

Additional requirements:

Financial support proof

Financial assistance

SAT training for his kid

Preparation of legal documents