2020- I got laid off due to covid and wasn't sure if I'd be able to get a job and wanted to continue my career so I applied to grad school.

Since I was a child I knew I wanted to go to college and go to graduate school

I decided to study for a master's degree in the summer of 2019. I've always been interested in designing experiences, but there wasn't a "right time," but that particular summer, I decided I should try.

When I was done with my high school education at the age of 17. I haven't gave it much thought it was the normal thing to do in my family and community.

2) Approximately, how long did it take you to complete an application process for a university/graduate school?
