

Gabriela - 16 year old female from South America

She is a high school student and is culturally influenced to apply for universities, and later graduate schools, right after finishing high school. Therefore, she is a young teenager trying to decide where and what to study in a year. Her family supports her to study abroad for getting a better education and better job resources for her future.

English Level:

Took a year of SAT and scores a little lower than required amount

Feelings through application process:

Anxious, Stressed, Excited, Dreadful, Lost

Support:

Financially from parents, Older sibling that went through the same process, Online websites, Phone & Email conversations with Universities.

Additional requirements:

Translated Transcripts

Authorised translations

English level sufficiency

Credit eligibility