There should be an obvious "APPLY FOR -whatever it is-" clearly on the page, and once you click in, it should be another simple, clear, and easy process. Auto-saving your information when you fill it out is also critical, and being able to delete and restart your application is also important for people who need that.

I believe we need to talk more about it since a younger age and schools need to give us a chance to experience the work fields earlier. It is a very important decision that needs to be studied more and discussed more with counselors and people with more experience.
